

Good news! You have received a gift subscription to the Next Big Idea Club.

Curated by world-renowned authors Susan Cain, Malcolm Gladwell, Adam Grant, and Daniel Pink, the Next Big Idea Club identifies two groundbreaking new nonfiction books each season and sends them directly to you. Whether it's by a bestselling, award-winning author or an emerging writer, if it's smart, life-changing, and can't-be-missed, it's yours.

You will also receive our original 30-minute video and audio courses that highlight the books' key ideas; helpful reading guides featuring summaries, quizzes, and interactive exercises; and fascinating, intimate author interviews.

As a member, you're invited to join our private-access Facebook group, where you'll have the opportunity to discuss the books with thousands of fellow club members, and participate in live chats with the authors and curators.

We'll email you as soon as your gift box is on its way to your door. Summer Boxes are estimated to ship in late July.

But why wait until then? You can check out our library of video insights, reading guides, and author interviews from past seasons by visiting www.nextbigideaclub.com and clicking on Member Login and follow the login instructions.

Welcome to the Next Big Idea Club!

Cheers,

The Next Big Idea Club Team

P.S. When you're ready to join the conversation, just request access to our private Facebook discussion group: www.facebook.com/groups/nextbigideaclub.
